ABOUT JUSTIN

BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Justin Hiebert is the CEO and co-founder of New Frontier Consulting, a dynamic consulting agency dedicated to helping small business owners scale their businesses while achieving sustained growth.

Justin got his start from a humble farm in central Kansas. The son of a lifelong farming father and an educator mother, Justin learned early on the importance of learning and application. As a rambunctious child, Justin figuratively (and literally!) learned every lesson the hard way. If you've ever wanted to know what it's like to stab a nail through your foot, ask Justin, he's done it three times!

From those dusty central plains, to a major American city, Justin now resides in Bakersfield, California, with his wife, four children, and four pets.

Justin enjoys reading, fitness, and witnessing the transformation of those he serves. His core philosophy is simple: the best days are ahead.

SPEAKING TOPICS

01

Mindset and Growth

Having a positive mental mindset can help business owners get unstuck and scale fast!

Success starts with the right mindset. Justin helps business owners and leaders identify limiting beliefs, shift their thinking, and adopt a growth-focused mentality to unlock their full potential.

02

Systems and Scaling

Creating clear systems with operational triggers that sustain business growth!
